Reformation/Stewardship Sunday

LESSON. Jeremiah 31:31–34

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt — a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

SECOND LESSON. Romans 3:19-28

Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For "no human being will be justified in his sight" by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin. But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies the one who has faith in Jesus. Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. By what law? By that of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

GOSPEL. John 8:31–36

Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?" Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.

Today's Gospel speaks of freedom for those who "...continue in my word," and are truly Jesus' disciples. As disciples of Jesus, we will explore together what freedom means for us and for the world in which we live. Does Christian freedom mean that we do what we should do? Does it mean freedom to do just anything? Or does it mean something else altogether?

Prelude
Announcements

* Confession of Sin and Absolution (Based on Martin Luther's Small Catechism)

P: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: What benefits does God give in Baptism?

C: In baptism God forgives sin, delivers from death and the devil, and gives everlasting salvation to all who believe what he has promised.

P: What does baptism mean for daily living:

C: It means that our sinful self, with all its evil deeds and desires, should be drowned though daily repentance, and that day after day a new self should arise to live with God in righteousness and purity forever.

P: Let us confess our sins to God. Most merciful God,

C: We confess that we have not lived in the promises of our baptism, but have sinned against you and our neighbors in many ways. Grant once again today, dear Lord, that our sinful selves may be drowned and that we may arise again as new creations in Jesus Christ. Amen.

P: Do you believe that the forgiveness I declare is the forgiveness of God?

C: Yes, I do.

P: Be it done for you as you have believed. According to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ, I forgive you your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Live in the promises of your baptism.

C: AMEN

* Hymn of Praise

Let All Things Now Living

ELW 881 (v.1)

Let all things now living a song of thanksgiving to God the creator triumphantly raise;
who fashioned and made us, protected and stayed us, who still guides us on to the end of our days.
God's banners are o'er us, God's light goes before us, a pillar of fire shining forth in the night, til shadows have vanished and darkness is banished as forward we travel from light into light.

First Lesson

Jeremiah 31:31–34

The renewed covenant will not be breakable, but like the old covenant it will expect the people to live upright lives. To know the Lord means that one will defend the cause of the poor and needy (Jer. 22:16). The renewed covenant is possible only because the Lord will forgive iniquity and not remember sin. Our hope lies in a God who forgets.

(Congregational response after reading: Thanks be to God)

Second Lesson

Romans 3:19-28

Paul's words stand at the heart of the preaching of Martin Luther and the other Reformation leaders. No human beings make themselves right with God through works of the law. We are brought into a right relationship with God through the divine activity centered in Christ's death. This act is a gift of grace that liberates us from sin and empowers our faith in Jesus Christ.

(Congregational response after reading: Thanks be to God)

* Gospel Acclamation

(Congregation responds after Gospel is announced: Glory to you, O Lord.)

* Gospel

John 8:31-36

Jesus speaks of truth and freedom as spiritual realities known through his word. He reveals the truth that sets people free from sin.

(Congregation responds after Gospel is Read: Praise to you, O Christ.)

All Saints Sunday NEXT SUNDAY , November 1... Everyone is invited to write the names of any loved ones they would like us to remember in the “Book of Saints” located on the podium in the narthex. We will print these names in the bulletin next Sunday, and remember them as a group during worship.

This friendly, informal atmosphere offers an opportunity for everyone to get to know one another and take a look at our Lutheran teachings. Attending the sessions doesn't commit you to join. Childcare is available.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Research Says, “Givers Also Get”

“While most people probably subscribe to the general theory that charity is “good for the soul,” almost all would be hard-pressed to say why. Many would also be surprised to learn that philanthropic acts are also good for the mind and body. Research is beginning to confirm these claims. These emerging findings can transform the way people live and feel about themselves...philanthropic involvement is measurably wholesome for mind, body, and soul.” [Give to Live, Douglas M Lawson]

Of course, that research is not new information. The Bible has been telling us for two thousand years that giving is more blessed than receiving.
