Dear Friends,

My youngest son, Charlie, who is 20 months old, is in love with someone. You might think that this person that he is in love with is “Mama” or “Dada” — and I know Charlie loves us too — but Charlie has someone else that makes his heart go pitter pat. Charlie is in love with Elmo - the furry red little monster on Sesame Street. Charlie has a few Elmo movies – one of them being “Elmo in Grouchland.”

In this movie, Elmo’s favorite blanket is stolen by an angry man named Huxley – a man who has a problem with a little word: “MINE.” He steals toys and trinkets from everyone and stamps “MINE” all over them. He clearly has a problem with sharing. It’s a nice lesson for kids, and as we have 4 of them and they clearly need to share things (especially attention from Mommy and Daddy) it’s a lesson that is worth learning well in our house.

I’ve been thinking about this movie a bit lately, and wondering how much we are like Huxley. We like to sort of “hoard” things. We may know people who have lost jobs or who are struggling financially to a significant degree. But those of us living relatively comfortably tend to stay at the sidelines. We sit around and do nothing – thinking to ourselves that our contributions don’t matter, or that they won’t add up. We cling to our material possessions — when we should be instead clinging to the words of Jesus that say, “and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.” (Matthew 10:42)

It is my encouragement to you, dear friends, during this season of Lent. Give of yourselves deeply and richly. Invite a family over for dinner. Give generously to the Fergus Falls food shelf. Participate in the ELCA World Hunger 40 Days of Giving program. Talk as a family about other ways that you might be able to give of your time, talent, or treasure. Offer your support in whatever ways you can. God loves us always - even when we’re like Huxley.

But our Sisters and Brothers in Christ need our help. Thank you for all you do!

And at the end of the day, the one thing that you should hold close to you and say is “mine” – is the treasure we receive from Jesus – the priceless treasure of knowing that you are God’s dearly beloved child — and that nothing can change that. That, my friends, is priceless.

Jesus, Priceless Treasure (ELW 775)

Jesus, Priceless treasure, source of purest pleasure, Truest friend to me: Ah, how long I’ve panted, and my heart has fainted, thirsting, Lord for thee! Thine I am, O spotless lamb; nothing in this world can hide thee, Naught I ask beside thee.

In Christ,

Pastor Jennifer

FIRST LUTHERAN YOUTH MARCH 2016

Springs is in the Air!

It’s finally starting to warm up in Fergus Falls, which means that my mind automatically goes to SUMMER! How about you? Do you start daydreaming about laying out in the sun and soaking up rays, going to the cabin or getting out on the lake?

I’m starting to make plans for this summer’s activities. What are you interested in doing? Want to go Roller Skating? Go to a Red Hawks game? Go to Valleyfair?

Have a lock-in? Have a girls spa retreat? I’d love to hear your ideas and suggestions for summer activities. It will be here before you know it!

Nice weather can do so much to lift our spirits— but so can God. I invite you to come to our Wednesday Lenten services just to do a little recharge for the soul. I think you will find, as I have, that these services are a little bit of a breath of fresh air. Good news when we need to hear it. There’s nothing like the comfort of coming to your home church.

Remember too, that God walks with you always—when you’re in church and when you’re not.

“Behold: I am with you always, to the end of the age”
—Matthew 28:20

In Christ,

SHINE

This month, we are discovering the treasure, along with the congregation. Our Workshops are focused on Holy Week and Easter so the students are listening to Spark Bible references about Holy Week, decorating empty eggs, playing caterpillar and Butterfly tag, figuring out a crossword puzzle, making crushed crowns from pretzels, learning a celebration refrain, creating props to represent their part in the Lenten story; all to remind them of the empty tomb and Jesus’ resurrection!

On Palm Sunday, we are inviting the congregation to go on a Holy Week Treasure Hunt during Sunday School. Also, children will sing in church on Palm Sunday at the beginning of both services!

First Communion Classes: Faith Milestone for 5th graders

A special faith learning experience begins on March 13 during Sunday School. The parents will begin their classes along with their children. They’ll learn about the Sacrament of Holy Communion. After their instruction over the next few weeks, students will experience their First Communion at the worship service on Maundy Thursday, March 24th at 7:00.

“The Treasure of a Father’s Love”
Jesus tells a beautiful story of a father’s love in today’s Gospel. And then he says, ‘That’s what God is like.’ God is not an angry, vengeful judge. God is a loving father who longs to welcome us with open arms, whether we are the younger son or the elder brother.

“Jesus, Priceless Treasure”
Philippians 3:4b-14
The apostle Paul has a lot he could boast about. But he considers all of this rubbish in order to be found in Christ. Jesus is a true treasure. What will we find in our treasure chest this morning?

“Jesus: Trash or Treasure?”
In today’s readings, we hear a vast spectrum of different attitudes toward Jesus. First Jesus enters in a grand procession—and soon Jesus becomes ridiculed and mocked. What once was treasured soon becomes trash. How do we approach Jesus today—as trash or treasure?

“God’s Treasured Children”
John 13:1-17, 31b-35
On this Maundy Thursday, we hear God’s love story—written for you and me, his beloved children. Today we learn a new commandment: that we must love one another. How do we share God’s humble servant-like love of us with others?

Good Friday
John 18:1-19:42
The Adult Choir will lead us in solemn contemplation of the events of Good Friday. As each candle is extinguished, music and scripture help us meditate on the deep meaning of Christ’s death. The cross is veiled at the close of the evening service. The savior of the world is dead.

Pope Francis asks Protestants to forgive Catholics for persecution
by Catholic News Service
posted Tuesday, 26 Jan 2016

The Pope spoke at a prayer service concluding the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

After walking across the threshold of the Holy Door of the Basilica of St Paul Outside the Walls with an Orthodox metropolitan and an Anglican archbishop, Pope Francis invoked God’s mercy upon divided Christians and apologised for times that Catholics may have hurt members of other denominations.

“As bishop of Rome and pastor of the Catholic Church, I want to beg for mercy and forgiveness for un-Gospel-like behaviour on the part of Catholics against Christians of other churches,” the Pope said on Monday at a prayer service concluding the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

“We ask most of all for forgiveness for the sin of our divisions, which are an open wound on the body of Christ,” Pope Francis said.

“At the same time, I ask all my Catholic brothers and sisters to forgive if, today or in the past, they were hurt by other Christians,” he said.

“We cannot erase what happened, but we do not want to allow the burden of past faults to continue to poison our relationships.”

“Beyond the differences that still separate us,” he told the ecumenical gathering, “we recognise with joy that at the origin of the Christian life there is always a call whose author is God himself.”

The path to Christian unity, he said, is not simply about drawing closer to one another, but has more to do with each person drawing closer to Christ and finding each other there.

“When all Christians of different churches listen to the word of God and try to put it into practice,” the Pope said, “they truly take important steps toward unity.”

He added: “It is not only the call that unites us. We are joined by the same mission: to proclaim to all the mighty acts of the Lord. Walking together and working together, we will become aware that we are already united in the name of the Lord. Unity is made by walking.”
