Fourth Sunday in Advent

FIRST LESSON. Micah 5:2-5a

But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days. Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel. And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God. And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth; and he shall be the one of peace.

SECOND LESSON. Hebrews 10:5-10

Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, "Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body you have prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. Then I said, 'See, God, I have come to do your will, O God' (in the scroll of the book it is written of me)." When he said above, "You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law), then he added, "See, I have come to do your will." He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. And it is by God's will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

GOSPEL. Luke 1:39-45 [46-55]

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord." [And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name. His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts. He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."]

According to scripture, when Mary learns that she is carrying the son of God, she isn't angry. She isn't mad. She's calm, cool, and collected. How can she be so peaceful with this news? Today we join with Mary in thanksgiving and gratitude for the gift of Jesus, who is coming soon.

Prelude
Announcements

 Confession of Sin

L: Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, who shapes the whole creation, who comes with might and mercy, who fills the hungry with good things. Amen.

L: Let us approach the throne of grace with repentant hearts.

(Silence is kept for reflection.)

C: Faithful God, we confess that we have been unfaithful to you. Like dry leaves and withered grass, our lives are blown about by our sins and the powers of evil around us. Restore us, O God; let the light of your face shine on us, and we shall be saved. Amen.

L: God is patient, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance. In the name of + Jesus Christ, I bring you this good news: You are free from all that imprisons you; your sins are forgiven; God heals your broken hearts. Live in peace and harmony as you wait for the day of God. Amen.

CHRISTMAS EVE CANDLELIGHT SERVICES

3 & 5 p.m.	Blessing of the Family of God Everyone will receive a family blessing from the pastors. (If you are a family of one, we invite you to receive a blessing for yourself and your loved ones wherever they may be.)
11 p.m.	Holy Communion On this holy night we participate in the mystery of the incarnation as Christ comes to us in the bread and wine.

Christmas Day - One Service at 10 a.m.

A Festival of Lessons & Carols/Holy Communion
This worship tradition from King's College Chapel, Cambridge, England, brings Christmas Day to life with rich music. We hear the Christmas story in the regal language of the King James, sing some of our favorite carols, and break bread together.
(There is no sermon.)

SUNDAYS, DECEMBER 27 & JANUARY 3
THERE WILL BE ONLY ONE SERVICE AT 10 A.M.
NO SUNDAY SCHOOL, NO ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Our Christmas Cookies for Special Friends was a huge success! We delivered over 75 generous plates of Christmas cookies to shut-ins and members of our congregation who no longer bake. Our sincere thanks to the many members who donated their homemade cookies and candies for this special event. We are also grateful for the dedicated drivers who delivered these plates to our church members. The feedback the drivers have shared is that the recipients were delighted to receive this Christmas gift from First Lutheran. Thank you, thank you!

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Christmas Giving Trees! Your generosity truly made an impact on the lives of those receiving the gifts. Thank you!

The Pastors would like to ask for your help is making sure that everyone who needs a visit from our Visitation Pastor, Stan Satre, is on our visitation list. We do not want anyone to be missed. Please let one of the Pastors know if you, or anyone you know that would like a visit. Thank you for your help.

This month, Our Sunday School families will be collecting coats, jackets, mittens, etc. for The United Way Coats for Kids program. If you come across some items that are in good shape, but no longer fit, please bring it to church to help someone else keep warm! Please drop them off in Cindy's office next to the Library. Thank you!

One of our members, Arlene Grage, has moved from her home into an assisted living facility. Her new address is 1403 Nicole Court, Fergus Falls and her phone number is 218-998-5961. Arlene would love to hear from her church family with a Christmas card or a short phone call.
